That is What Defense Is Trying to Prove, It Seems.

KELLER MADE SCAPEGOAT.

Testimony of Confessed Swindler Sheds More Light.

8. Dean Company wheat pool swinle, was on the stand again before Re-Goff this morning, teiling more out the inside of the fraud to which es he was a party.

f. Davis. cross-examining er, tried to get an admission from of the Astoria Club.

Davis's line of questions has not purpose of disproving that the E. S.

at you were stealing from the cor-?" demanded Mr. Davis. rand and Miss Vieth knew, for instructed me in it. I didn't need much instruction. eine besides yourself knew that Vieth, Miss Kramer and Fer-not have known it. She had he signed checks, looked after the id Jacob Lemberg, the nominal secary and treasurer, know who was the 'swag?' the checks and often carried to Kellogg.

low much, from your rough account, you steal from the Dean corpora-

last week of the company the accumulated in the office safe. the Sheriff found above $40,000

November I saw Kellogg at the Dean Company offices, and Kellogg me they were going to start a pool e short side of the market. Kellogg me to throw up my job and put County, Passes Away at the Age of Bighty.

an A. Todd, one of the oldes est widely known ministers in County, died this morning

Boy, Mr. Todd, who was eighty years to was pastor of the old Second Remod Church, in Mount Pleasant, for RACK FOR THOMAS.

The World Much More than Double!

Paid Help Wants in To-Day's

Paid Help Wants in the 13 other N. Y. papers combined.

16! IMPROVEDS KITCHENWORK LADIES TAILORS S LAUNDRESSEA 6 MILLINERY SINURARES OPERATORS PAINTERS PHOTOGRAPHERS PIANOS 1 PORTERA SALESLADIES SALESMEN

> SKIRT HANDS IS MEEVE HANDS

S TRAW SEWERS

UPHOLSTERERS USEFUL MEX...
WARP HANDS

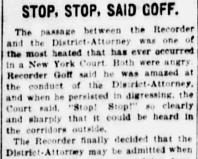

ID TIPEWRITER

TO PLEAD TO-MORROW.

Stop That Cough and Work Off the Cold.

SNUBBED BY GRAND JURY, COL. GARDINER PROTESTS.

(Continued from First Page.) clude any person they deemed best to

District-Attorney may be admitted when the Grand Jury requests advice from him. The Grand Jury may require him to attend and examine witnesses. When the District-Attorney desires to give in formation regarding any matter pend-James B. Kellogg as the chief in the ing before them he must be admitted "But when that information is im parted," said the Recorder, "the function of the District-Attorney ceases."

PARKHURST APPEARS.

Dr. Charles H. Parkhurst entered the m that he was proprietor of a gambling Grand Jury room shortly after that body in Forty-third street under the met, at 11.10. Col. Gardiner, hearing of the visit of the crusader, followed him into the jury room.

Col. Gardiner had scarcely taken his pany was a swindle, but to seat when Foreman George Haven Putloubt on Keller's story that Kellogs nam politely asked him to withdraw one of the gang.

The District-Attorney was astounded.

Refusing to obey the request, he declared The District-Attorney was astounded it was his imperative right, under the statute, to be with the Grand Jury as its adviser during the examination of witnesses. The foreman did not think so. Recorder Goff sharply rebuked the District-Attorney, who protested hotly. "I am here," said Gardiner, "as the constitutional representative of the pecple, duly elected to represent them."

"Stop! Stop!" cried the Recorder, his voice tinged with anger and impatience. "Confine yourself to the complaint of the Grand Jury that you have interfered with their work."

Recorder Goff turned to address the jurors, who stood in amazement while "Gentlemen of the Grand Jury, the question you ask me is one of great importance. According to the understanding of the law the District-Attorney may appear before you under any one of the appear before you under any one of the three following conditions:

"First—The Grand Jury may request advice from the District-Attorney.

"Second—The Grand Jury may require him to attend and examine witnesses.

"Third—When the District-Attorney desires to give information relative to any sires to give information relative to any matter pending before them he must be admitted. On the latter one the inquiry

He then repeated the latter and re-

GARDINER'S RIGHTS.

GARDINER'S RIGHTS.

"You will observe that the language of the statute says for a particular purpose. The right of admission before the Grand Jury by the District-Attorney is not absolute. He has the right only to submit information relative to matters before the Grand Jury by the District-Attorney is not absolute. He has the right only to submit information relative to matters before them. When that information even the first produced in a refuge in an appace of insolvency.

"And I said Keller wanted to leave as a six Kellenge, according to the Rubes?"

"And let all that good money go to the Rubes?"

"And let all that good money go to the Rubes?"

"A was introduced to James B. Kellenge, with James C. Powell, of the E. S. Dean Company in the first produced to James B. Kellenge, and to Mr. Bernard. I spointed agent for Dutchess Counting to the result of the produced agent for Dutchess Counting the state and the cases provided by law than a stranger."

"I charge you that it is within your and the result of the same and the result of the produced to James B. Kellenge of the same and the result of the produced to James B. Kellenge of the same and the result of the produced to James B. Kellenge of the same and the result of the produced to James B. Kellenge of the same and the result of the produced to James B. Kellenge of the same and the result of the produced to James B. Kellenge of the same and the result of the produced to James B. Kellenge of the same and the result of the produced to James B. Kellenge of the same and the result of the produced to James B. Kellenge of the same and the result of the produced to James B. Kellenge of the same and the result of the same and the s introduced to James B. Kellogs at the said, "and to Mr. Bernard. I Jury except in the cases provided by law than a stranger.

"I charge you that it is within your power and discretion, and bear in mind that you have the right to examine any person without the interference of the District-Attorney. It is your power to aid when you request him to with a will be to aid when you request him to with a clime."

OR DIES OF APPOLEXY

The District-Attorney declines to aid when you request him to with a manner—you have the power to complete him to retire. If it is on a question of information, when he sends word to you you must admit him, sends word to you you must admit him, sends word to you you must admit him, but if you have a witness before you you can suspend your investigation until the District-Attorney concludes, then the cases provided by Russia than Ever.

PARIS. March 15.—M. Delcasse, the Minister of Foreign Affairs, to-day declared in the Senate that the Boer Republics had appealed to the powers. The reply of Lord Salisbury to the Boer Presidents showed "the intervention of the powers had become almost impossible."

The Minister denied that France had refused to Join Russia in making a friendly suggestion in the direction of power to complete him to retire. If it is the District-Attorney conceived him to retire. If it is must have the power to complete him to retire. If it is must have the power to complete him to retire. If it is must have the power to a witness before you you have a witness before you you have a witness before you you have a witness before you have a witness before you have a witness before you you have a witness the power was a witness of the power was a witness of the power of the powers.

The minister of Foreign Affairs, to-day declared in the Senate that the Boer Presidents showed "the intervention of the powers had been power to a witness the power of the power was a witness to a witness the power of the power was a witness to a witn till the District-Attorney concludes, then you can resume it.

"It is his duty to obey you. Proceed, gentlemen, and examine your witnesses as you see fit. You may retire."

After the Grand Jury retired to its froom Dr. Parkhurst was recalled. After several questions had been asked him Foreman Putnam despatched a messenger to the office of the District-Attorney requesting his presence before the Grand Jury to question. Dr. Parkhurst.

Col. Gardiner did not respond per-

John McKenna, keeper of a pool-room at 10s West Thirty-first street. David Merks, 2 St. Mark's place, pool-Bernard Levi and James Wardell, 55 Whitehall street, pool-room.
William McIntyre, Frederick Jackson,
Louis Galagher, Charles Wilson, 612
Sath avenue, pool-room.
William Stout, E. H. Lawrence, Ed.
Carter, Walter Wilson, 60 Broad street;

pool-room.

Michael J. Carroll, William Clark.
Benjamia Mitchell, 112 West Fourteenth street; pool-room.

Morris Klein, 2126 Third avenue; gamthe Canr.

Antonio Cuba, 2024 Third avenue; gambling-house.

Frank Gazzola, Glusseppe Lovaglio, 1229 First avenue, gambling house.

Antonio Glogosa, 125 East One Hundred and Seventh street, gambling house.

Charles R. Stavens, Patrick Agnew. Charles Cohen, Riley Bell John Cook, John Williams, Jack Morra, Henry Smith, Jesse Clark, Albert Martin, 21 Bowery, gambling house.

The men indicted on the evidence of the Parkburst Society were Marks. Letter May, Wardel, Melityre, Jackson, Gallagher, Charles Wisson, Stout, Law-reuse, Carter, Walver Wilson, These men were all employed in the gambling house at 241 laywery. The other cases were furnished by the police.

TO PLEAD TO-MORROW.

CONSTANTINOPLE, March 15.—There is great anxiety in official circles here regarding the Russian Government's regarding the Russian Government's regarding the Magistrate of the Magistrate and the facts now. These men have been unwarrantably arrested and put to much trouble. What were significant advises against submission and the Sultan advises advises advision.

No FREE SPECCH NOW.

Why, they had don't bling-house.
Antonio Cuba, 2024 Third avenue; gam-bling-house.

All parties indicted will be arraigned efore Recorder Goff for pleading tomorrow morning.
Witnesses before the Grand Jury to-day were Dr. Parkhurst, Supt. Henry Burr, of the Parkhurst Society: Police anti-peace rows fell on the Boer sympa-He said the pro-Boers were not justifee in forcing their ideas in the present state of tuit-ic feeling.

After a lively debute a motion to adjours was lost by a vote of 20 to 15.

CROKER ON THE POLICE CRUSADE Richard Croker, according to cable despatches received here to-day, while passing through London on his way to his country home at Wantage from Brighton, gave his views on the antivice crusade in this city. This is Mr. Croker's interview: "No one would be stilly enough to ougget that vice is not prevalent in New York, but I don't admit by any means that it is worse than in London, or as bad as in Paris. Till the millennium arrives vice will be co-existent with large of the interview: "I have the utmost confidence in the police of New York. I believe they not believe they are will be co-existent with large of the interview will be co-existent with large of the interview in police of New York. I believe they not believe they not believe they of their utmost in checking vice and poundations. A SCATHING REBUKE. "These arrests were unwarranted under the law. I nonorably discharge every ma here. I want to asy right under the law. I nonorably discharge every ma here. I want to asy right there, in order to let the public know in order to let the public had infecting and the and sealing the noting that the was planted that yestends that y

Roosevelt Won't Talk.

ODD TALK BY FRANCE.

on of New York City officials.

ever cemented to the Transvani, "England will never conquer u

TURKEY IS WARLIKE.

the Canr.

Parliament Indorses Balfour.

LONDON, March 15 .- In the House of Commons to-day Mr. Baifour said the Government felt the responsibility for rives vice will be co-existent with large do their utmost in checking vice and populations. Secret vice will "It is the old, old atory trotted out abound despite the most rigid application of law, and it haffes police efforts to suppress it. But the fact that it exists cannot support the insane outery New York are in collusion with vice is that the police connive at its existence.

ALBANY, N. Y., March 15 .- Governor Roosevelt refused to discuss the vice situation to-day and declined to say whether he would appoint a Deputy At-Capt Thomas, the vigilant, had business elsewhere. Even the two unformanate detectives were so ashamed of MAYOR DODGED THE ISSUE their job that they disappeared in one of the back rooms of the court and were not to be found until after they Magistrate Cornell looked like a thun-

DIDN'T NEED LAWYERS.

The men arrested in the Tenderloin precinct were all early in court. Only two of them had deemed it necessary to engage counsel. They were Morello and Albert Hesse, of the Black Cat res-

The "prisoners at the bar" were: Morgan R. Roth, proprietor of the Hotel Imperial, and Edward Rafter his orchestra leader Angelo Morello, restaurant keeper, of & West Twenty-ninth street, and Richard Peronso, musician; Albert Hesse, of the Black Cat restaurant. 32 West Twenty-eighth street, and Done van Lawrie, musician; Samuel A. Martin, Martin's 1417 Broadway, and H. Waller, musician: John P. March, of March's rectourant 106 West Thirty-fourth street, and Gustav Gald SAYS BRITAIN CAN'T WIN, sebestat musician; Gustav Schultz, of Schultz, part, 1000 Broodway, and Stonk Opula, must District-Attorney Gardiner announced shortly after noon that the Grand Jury investigation of Police Captain Thomas would be resumed to-day.

Chief Devery and detectives from Capt. Thomas's district were on hand.

Anthony Comstock, accompanied by District-Attorney Gardiner, entered the Grand Jury room at 12.30 o'clock this afternoon.

Agent Wessels, of the Free State, After waiting until 10 o'clock, Magistrate Cornell said:

"This is an outrage. I have read in the papers about the arrests of these reputable gentlemen by the police. Is it possible that they do not know their own minds over night? I cannot understand this business at all. It is begand.

THIRTY INDICTED.

The Grand Jury reported to Recorder Goff in Part I, of General Sessions at 145 o'clock.

Foreman Putnam handed up to the Recorder twelve indictments against thirty men for bookmaking and gambling.

The indicted men are:

John McKenna, keeper of a pool
The indicted men are:

John McKenna, keeper of a pool
The indicted men are:

John McKenna, keeper of a pool
The indicted men are:

John McKenna, keeper of a pool
The manued in the State of the State

Government, and this business at all. It is beyond the importance at all it is beyond the men are who importance. It was decided months to importance in the state of the stating that the state of the beneficials value of the president of the Democratic Club, and the other State officials value of the state of the other state of the state of the other der, is here, and I am making him wait for the recreant solice.

"I won't wait any longer. Take up these cases. I shall not keep these gentlemen waiting any longer. If no complainties appear we will go on with them without them. See if the officers in the case are in the building."

SLEUTHS DRAGGED IN.

After a little Detectives Binnings and Marva were dragged into court looking very much ashamed of themselves.

then said the arrests were repudiated the District-Attorney's office. There was nothing calling for criminal procould be sued by the Corporation Counsel and 500 collected from each for a concert license. "The District-Attorney does not appear." he mid.

DR. PARKHURST SCORES THE CHIEF.

By Dr. Parkhurst.

Dictated Esciusively to The Evening World.

behind him are realising this now.

MAY INDICT DEVERY.

IS PUSHED AHEAD.

ALBANY, March 15.-In the Senate to day the Fallows Confession of Judgment

bill and the Pallows Anti-Ramapo bil were advanced to a third reading and made a special order for Monday night.

SHIPPING NEWS.

ALMANAC FOR TO-DAT.

PORT OF NEW YORK.

ARRIVED.

OUTGOING STEAMSHIPS.

BAILED TO-DAY.

TO EAIL TO-MORROW

INCOMING STEAMSHIPS.

DUE TO-DAY.

Have Devery's wits taken leave of aroused. him, or did a vacancy previously exist New York when morally stirred up in his mind where his wits ought to be? would wreck him very easily. The pow-He couldn't have taken a step more ers behind him are also scared. I do not likely to react to his own damage. I expect any culmination of that sort just am very glad he did it, and I hope he will so on in the same line. "Whom New York is long suffering, as Compthe gods would destroy they first make troller Coler says. Its feelings are

I think the object of Devery's action of its engagements and interests keep is plain enough. He simply wanted to it from being very deeply interested in anything outside its every-day du-ties. But when it is moved, it is like get back at his revilers. Was he ordered to take this action by higher power? I do not suppose that oak then-hard to be lighted, but makhe does anything at all without being ordered to do it. DEVERY A MERE TOOL

The fellow is a mere tool. Public sentiment is pretty solid at a giance into the actualities of the resent. This action of Devery's was situation. not needed to solidify it. It will tend to exasperate it.

It is astounding what steps a man who has not much brains to start with and no moral principle whatever to bank on, will take when he is panic-stricken. And Devery certainly is partie-stricken now. He cannot foresee where the pres- taken toward indicting Devery for maient tide of swelling indignation is going feasance in office. All of the present events, they culminate immediately or not-and I do not expect any immediate ness, but I do not expect any ing very culmination—give Devery a suggestion thorough at present. I do look for of what New York is like when it is in good time.

I have to say," said Magistrate Cornell. ANTI-RAMAPO BILL A SCATHING REBUKE.

police of New York. I believe they do their utmost in checking vice and punishing lawbreakers. Secret vice will abound despite the most rigid application of law, and it bames police efforis to suppress it. But the fact that it exists that in behalf of his clients he would that in behalf of his clients he would not suppress it. But the fact that it exists that in behalf of his clients he would not suppress it. But the fact that it exists that in behalf of his clients he would not suppress on Chief Devery this afternoon is a civil suit for heavy damages. Chief Devery called the attention of the Captans of all the precincts to the results are being served.

(Continued from First Page.)

mouse long before Magistrate Cornell opened the Jefferson Market Court this morning. Not a rain of prominence in the department was present to watch the progress of Devery's latest. Devery had not go' downlown after his arduous nights work.

Capt Thomas, the vigilant, had busi-

Vice Crusnde.

A reporter for The Evening World tried to interview Mayor Van Wyck on Devery's high-handed arrests, aboard an L train this morning.
"Mr. Mayor, what do you think of the arrest of hotel proprietors who have music in their dining-rooms?" was asked. The face of the Mayor of the Imperial City of America overclouded. Its ex-City of America overclouded. Its pression was like one of pain, and the Mayor gathered up his newspaper with a jerk and in a petulant tone he said:

"I don't want to talk to newspaper reporters at all."

Then the Chief Magistrate of New York, always noted for his courtesy and good manners, got up and went to the DINNER TO COL. GARDINER.

District-Attorney Was the Speet of Honor at the Home of Robert B. Roosevelt.

District-Attorney Gardiner was dined last evening by Mr. Robert B Roose-velt, uncle of the Governor, and ex-United States Minister to Holland. The dinner took place at the Rooseveit home, 5; Fifth avenue. Justices Beekman, Dwyer and ex-Justice Van

On the Head.

If you have cruptions, pains in the head or kilneys, stomach rouble and feelings of weariness, " Hit the nail on the head." Hood's Sarsaparilla is the hammer to use. it will purify your blood. The masses praise it for coing this.

Hoods Sarsaparilla NOVERDO 1,

Help Wanted-Male

CIGAR PACKER FORE-APPRENTICES AT KERBS, WERTHEIM & SCHIFFER'S, 1018 & 1020 2D AVE.

PIANO PLATE CLEANERS and chippers. The Randship hose the Eagle and Process on Greenpoint, Brooklyn. WANTED-Cylinder prop Bodon, wagte Ba

Help Wented-Female

Boys' and Children's Clothing

For buvers of place where so good things can be bought for so little money.

at our stores Friday and Saturday we've arranged to give some special spring opportunities-good serviceable garments at considerably less than their actual

SALE AT ALL FOUR STORES.

FOYS' TOP COATS, sizes 3 to 15 years, from strictly all-wool Tan Coverts—up-to date cut—perfect fitting—good farmer wool Cassimers and Cheviots—several to date cut—perfect fitting—good farmer satin lining—sold all over New 2.98
York for $4; our special price. 2.98
BOYS' VESTEE SUITS—3 to 8 years—dozen styles, all new —made from all-wool Blue and Fancy Cheviots, with sailor or small collar—swell combinations—20th Century styles—real value $4 to 2.98
BOYS' AND LADIES' LINEN COLLARS—sall styles, all sizes—regular 15c, qual-lity; while they last pick 'em out at.. 5c

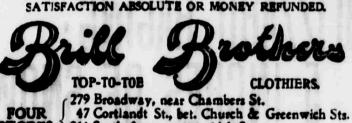

(Six for 25c.)

wool Cassimercs and Cheviots—several new patterns in Checks and Plaids—well tailored and neatly trimmed—real value $4—but to start this spring sea-your eral styles all-wool Cheviots and Cassimercs—handsomely tailored and perfect in every detail—choice of single or double breasted vest—every suit in the lot was bought to sell at $40, and worth all of that sum—but during this spring sale 7.50

(Six for 25c.)

treatment you've always received.

Men's, Boys' and Children's Clothing, Hats, Shoes and Furnishings at All Four Stores. SATISFACTION ABSOLUTE OR MONEY REFUNDED.

211 Sath Avenue, near 14th St. 125th Street, corner 3d Ave.

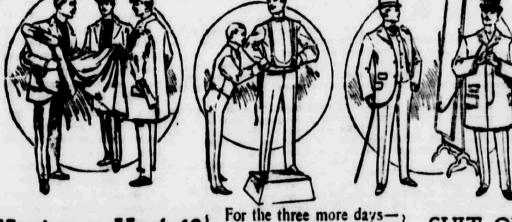

NO EXTRA CHARGE POR IT.

Advertisements for THE WORLD will be retived at any American District Messenger Office Postal Telegraph Office in New York City at the will be received at any American District Messenger Office or Postal Telegraph Office in New York City at
the will be received at any American District Messenger office
or Postal Telegraph Office in New York City at the will be received at any American District Messenger of postoffice rates. Call a messenger if you have a box.

Great Clothing Chance.

Offer Ends with St. Patrick's Day.

Merchant Tailoring Event. Greatest Clothing Sale of the Year Ends Saturday, March 17

Thursday. Friday. Saturday.

Warch 12 until March 17th—we will Spring Suit or Overcoat of high grade materials, of which March 15 there are twenty-five of this TO ORDER. season's newest styles to March 16 select from, guaranteed pure March 17 wool and fast colors. The Overcoats of the very best

SUIT OR OVERCOAT

Each garment cut by an expert cutter, guaranteeing a perfect tit. None but high class tailors employed in the making of these garments, assuring the best workmanship. These fabrics are not the accumulation of a season's odds and ends of goods carried over from last year, but the result of months of preparation in gathering the new choice pa terns of this season's creations in dependable materials of standard makes. Remember this offer is made only for three more days. After that we will positively not accept further orders. If you are not entirely satisfied after the Suit or Overcoat is made up you may return the garments and we will refund your money. Suit or Overcoat Made to Your Measure for 3 More Days,

Boys' and Children's Reliable Clothing at Special Prices.

Sollor Suits for the little fellows from 3 to 8 years, in fast color, strictly all-wool blue cheviot, made with deep sailor collar; trimmed with four rows of soutache braid; 1.95 usual $3 value our price.

Boys' Tan Tap Coats, the popular garment for boys of all ages, shown in all this spring's shades of covert cloth: also the new herringtone: well made, trimmed and 2.95 properly cut good value at $4.00; here at A Statesty All-West West-Resisting Saits, 8 to 15 years, made with double-breasted jacket, patent waisthand and 1.95 good trimmings in fact, made to give good between a clear sait as $3 ms a standard suit; we have placed the price at 1.95